

World AIDS Day, 1 December 2020, 10.00-12.30 CET | High-level conference

Delivering good mental health for people living with HIV

with the participation of the European Commissioner for Health and Food Safety, WHO Europe Director and Special Adviser to Executive Director UNAIDS and hosted by Members of the European Parliament from across the political spectrum

A key component of the wellbeing of people living with HIV is their mental health - especially as they face HIV associated health challenges and stigma and discrimination throughout their lives. This event aims to explore what policy actions are needed to improve the mental health of people living with HIV, thereby improving their overall health and quality of life.
